April 28, 2009

Mr. Yousaf Raza Gilani
Prime Minister, Islamic Republic of Pakistan
Constitution Ave, Sector F-5
Islamabad, Pakistan

Dear Prime Minister Gilani:

We would like to acknowledge and commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its unwavering support for The American International School System (AISS).

In particular, we commend the remarkable multi-partisan cooperation and support from the government of Pakistan. In particular, we thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, Prime Minister Yousaf Raza Gillani, Chief Minister of Punjab, Shahbaz Sharif, and Former Chief Minister of Punjab, Chaudhry Pervaiz Elahi, for their commitment to AISS.

Further, we would like to thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, for donating government lands to build additional AISS institutions in Karachi and Islamabad.

We hope and believe that The American International School system will prove to be a great benefit to Pakistan. AISS will provide hundreds of scholarships to underprivileged children, provide state-of-the-art schools, and bring some of the brightest teachers together from Pakistan and around the globe.

AISS is building bridges for children and exposing them to cutting edge-technology and sophisticated curricula. Indeed, graduates from AISS will more readily gain access to major education institutions in the Middle East, and around the world.

In sum, the AISS schools in Pakistan, in effect, will embody the motto E-Pluribus-Unum – “Out of Many, One”.

We therefore wish to commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its commitment toward AISS, and for its enduring friendship with The United States.

Sincerely,

Joseph I. Lieberman
US Senator

Donald Payne
Member of Congress

Steve Rothman
Member of Congress

Gary Ackerman
Member of Congress

Carolyn Maloney
Member of Congress

Scott Garrett
Member of Congress

Joseph Crowley
Member of Congress
April 28, 2009

Mian Shahbaz Sharif
Chief Minister of Punjab
Chief Minister Secretariat GOR-1
Lahore, Pakistan

Dear Minister Sharif:

We would like to acknowledge and commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its unwavering support for The American International School System (AISS).

In particular, we commend the remarkable multi-partisan cooperation and support from the government of Pakistan. In particular, we thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, Prime Minister Yousaf Raza Gillani, Chief Minister of Punjab, Shahbaz Sharif, and Former Chief Minister of Punjab, Chaudhry Pervaiz Elahi, for their commitment to AIS.

Further, we would like to thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, for donating government lands to build additional AIS institutions in Karachi and Islamabad.

We hope and believe that The American International School system will prove to be a great benefit to Pakistan. AIS will provide hundreds of scholarships to underprivileged children, provide state-of-the-art schools, and bring some of the brightest teachers together from Pakistan and around the globe.

AIS is building bridges for children and exposing them to cutting edge-technology and sophisticated curricula. Indeed, graduates from AIS will more readily gain access to major education institutions in the Middle East, and around the world.

In sum, the AIS schools in Pakistan, in effect, will embody the motto E-Pluribus-Unum – “Out of Many, One”.

We therefore wish to commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its commitment toward AIS, and for its enduring friendship with The United States.

Sincerely,

Joseph I. Lieberman  Donald Payne  Steve Rothman  Gary Ackerman
US Senator  Member of Congress  Member of Congress  Member of Congress

Carolyn Maloney  Scott Garrett  Joseph Crowley
Member of Congress  Member of Congress  Member of Congress
April 28, 2009

Chaudhry Pervaiz Elahi
President, Pakistan Muslim League
[Quaid-E-Azam] House No. 1-FCC, Gulberg
Lahore, Pakistan

Dear President Elahi:

We would like to acknowledge and commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its unwavering support for The American International School System (AISS).

In particular, we commend the remarkable multi-partisan cooperation and support from the government of Pakistan. In particular, we thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, Prime Minister Yousaf Raza Gillani, Chief Minister of Punjab, Shahbaz Sharif, and Former Chief Minister of Punjab, Chaudhry Pervaiz Elahi, for their commitment to AIS.

Further, we would like to thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, for donating government lands to build additional AIS institutions in Karachi and Islamabad.

We hope and believe that The American International School system will prove to be a great benefit to Pakistan. AIS will provide hundreds of scholarships to underprivileged children, provide state-of-the-art schools, and bring some of the brightest teachers together from Pakistan and around the globe.

AIS is building bridges for children and exposing them to cutting edge technology and sophisticated curricula. Indeed, graduates from AIS will more readily gain access to major education institutions in the Middle East, and around the world.

In sum, the AIS schools in Pakistan, in effect, will embody the motto E-Pluribus-Unum – "Out of Many, One".

We therefore wish to commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its commitment toward AIS, and for its enduring friendship with The United States.

Sincerely,

Joseph I. Lieberman
US Senator

Donald Payne
Member of Congress

Steve Rothman
Member of Congress

Gary Ackerman
Member of Congress

Carolyn Maloney
Member of Congress

Scott Garrett
Member of Congress

Joseph Crowley
Member of Congress
April 28, 2009

His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari
President, Islamic Republic of Pakistan
Constitution Ave, Sector F-5
Islamabad, Pakistan

Dear President Zardari:

We would like to acknowledge and commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its unwavering support for The American International School System (AISS).

In particular, we commend the remarkable multi-partisan cooperation and support from the government of Pakistan. In particular, we thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, Prime Minister Yousaf Raza Gillani, Chief Minister of Punjab, Shahbaz Sharif, and Former Chief Minister of Punjab, Chaudhry Pervaiz Elahi, for their commitment to AISS.

Further, we would like to thank His Excellency, President Asif Ali Zardari, for donating government lands to build additional AISS institutions in Karachi and Islamabad.

We hope and believe that The American International School System will prove to be a great benefit to Pakistan. AISS will provide hundreds of scholarships to underprivileged children, provide state-of-the-art schools, and bring some of the brightest teachers together from Pakistan and around the globe.

AISS is building bridges for children and exposing them to cutting edge-technology and sophisticated curricula. Indeed, graduates from AISS will more readily gain access to major education institutions in the Middle East, and around the world.

In sum, the AISS schools in Pakistan, in effect, will embody the motto E-Pluribus-Unum – “Out of Many, One”.

We therefore wish to commend the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for its commitment toward AISS, and for its enduring friendship with The United States.

Sincerely,

Joseph I. Lieberman
US Senator

Donald Payne
Member of Congress

Steve Rothman
Member of Congress

Gary Ackerman
Member of Congress

Carolyn Maloney
Member of Congress

Scott Garrett
Member of Congress

Joseph Crowley
Member of Congress